Michele Lafferty
Manager of Catholic Schools -
Wellington Archdiocese

I come from a primary principal background which has fitted me well for my position as support for principals and Boards of the primary schools in the Archdiocese. I get a great deal of satisfaction from being part of a network of effective schools which proudly proclaim the Good News to their communities.

I get a great deal of satisfaction from being part of a network of effective schools which proudly proclaim the Good News to their communities.

Michele Lafferty, was recently presented with the New Zealand Catholic Primary Principals Association award for outstanding service to Catholic Primary Education.

"deeply committed to Catholic Education"

"tremendously supportive"

"Her personality and individual style shines in everything she does. She is amusing, sensitive, knowledgeable, supportive and dedicated—a person who has walked alongside many of us, individually and collectively, within our school communities as a means of guidance. Michele is a leader who leads by example in the true meaning of 'Catholic'."

Sessions

Special Character

A look at the essential elements of the special character of your school. If you are not aware of what you are on about it will never become a lived reality in your practice.

Engaging with the Mission

Looking closely at what the mission is, what the purpose of your school is. How it impacts both on the community and cultural aspects of the life at your school.

Spirituality of place

Minding your place/Placing your mind. A look at your own spirituality, based on the places where and people with whom you find God.

Father Julian Bilyj is a Ukrainian Catholic Priest at St. Vladimir's Parish in Red Deer.

He is an elementary school teacher at St. Elizabeth Seton in Red Deer as well.

Father Julian is married and has two children.
